7. FINANCIAL OUTLAY FOR CSR ACTIVITIES

- 7.1 Every year, the Company shall with the approval of its Board of Directors make a budgetary allocation for CSR activities/ projects for the year. The budgetary allocation will be based on the profitability of the Company and the requirements of applicable laws.
- 7.2 The Company expects to spend the budgeted amount allocated for CSR activities/ projects planned for each financial year, within that year. If for any reason, the budget of a year remains unutilised, the same may be carried forward to the next year for expenditure on CSR activities, which were planned for implementation in the previous year, but could not be completed due to some reason. The CSR Committee and the Board of Directors will disclose the reasons for not being able to spend the entire budgeted amount on the CSR activities as planned for that year in the Annual Report of the Company.

- 7.3 Any surplus arising out of the CSR activities, projects or programs shall not form part of the business profits of the Company and shall be ploughed back into the same project or shall be transferred to the Unspent CSR Account and spent in pursuance of CSR policy and annual action plan of the company or transfer such surplus amount to a Fund specified in Schedule VII, within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.

8. TREATMENT OF UNSPENT AMOUNT

- 8.1 For ongoing project: If the unspent amount relates to any ongoing project, Company shall transfer such amount within a period of 30 days from end of financial year to a special account to be opened by the company in that behalf for that financial year in any scheduled bank to be called the “INOX India Limited - Unspent CSR Account” and such amount shall be spent by the Company in pursuance of its obligation towards the Corporate Social Responsibility Policy within a period of three financial years from date of such transfer as per the relevant Section / Provision of the Companies Act, 2013 and CSR Rules made thereunder.

In case the Company fails to spend such amount within the above specified three financial years, it shall transfer the same to a Schedule VII (Schedule VII Fund), within a period of thirty days from the date of completion of the third financial year.

- 8.2 Other than ongoing projects: Company shall transfer such unspent amount to a Fund specified in Schedule VII (Schedule VII Fund), within a period of six months of the expiry of the financial year.

9. IMPLEMENTATION

- 9.1 For effective implementation, long-term CSR plans will be broken down into medium-term and short-term plans. Each plan recommended by the CSR Committee should specify the CSR activities planned to be undertaken for each year, define the responsibilities of the designated authorities to be engaged in this task, and also prescribe the measurable and the expected outcome and social/ environmental impact of the CSR activities.

- 9.2 The Company recognises that the period of implementation of its long term CSR projects can extend over several years depending upon the expected outcomes/ impact thereof. While planning for such long term projects the CSR Committee would estimate the total cost of each project and recommend to the Board of Directors of the Company that the Company should commit such amount for long term expenditure till the completion of the project.

- 9.3 Each long term project will be broken up into annual targets and activities to be implemented sequentially on a yearly basis, and the budget would have to be allocated for the implementation of these activities and achievement of targets set for each successive year, till the final completion of the project.

- 9.4 The Company may take up the implementation of CSR project with its own manpower and resources, if the CSR Committee is confident of its organisational capability to execute such projects.

10. EXECUTING AGENCY

- 10.1 If in the opinion of the CSR Committee, the implementation of CSR projects requires specialised knowledge and skills, and if the Company does not have such expertise in-house, the wherewithal, and dedicated staff to carry out such activities, the CSR Committee may decide to avail the services of external specialised agencies for the implementation of such CSR projects.

- 10.2 The Board shall ensure that the CSR activities are undertaken by the company itself or through –

(a) a company established under section 8 of the Act, or a registered public trust or a registered society, registered under section 12A and 80 G of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), established by the company, either singly or along with any other company, or

(b) a company established under section 8 of the Act or a registered trust or a registered society, established by the Central Government or State Government; or

(c) any entity established under an Act of Parliament or a State legislature; or

(d) a company established under section 8 of the Act, or a registered public trust or a registered society, registered under section 12A and 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961, and having an established track record of at least three years in undertaking similar activities.

10.3 In the event an external agency is engaged for the purposes of the CSR initiatives of the Company, the Company will need to enter into an agreement with the relevant executing/implementing external agency, setting out the terms and conditions of the engagement of the external agency.

11. MONITORING

11.1 The Company recognises that monitoring is critical for assessment of the progress as regards timelines, budgetary expenditure and achievement of targets. Monitoring may be done periodically with the help of identified key performance indicators, the periodicity being determined primarily by the nature of key performance indicators.

11.2 Monitoring will be done in project mode with continuous feedback mechanism, and recourse always available for mid-course correction in implementation, whenever required.

11.3 The performance of the Company's CSR activities would be monitored on the basis of their achievement of annual targets and the utilization of their annual budgets for the activities planned and the targets set for each year.

11.4 Implementation and monitoring of the CSR activities will be overseen by the CSR Committee. The monitoring and evaluation may be assigned by the CSR Committee to an independent external agency for the sake of objectivity and transparency.

11.5 If the projects are being implemented by external agencies, the Company may in consultation with CSR Committee designate special executives for this purpose.

12. GENERAL

12.1 All the definitions as mentioned in the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 shall apply to the Company.

12.2 The Company reserves the right to modify, cancel, add, or amend this CSR Policy.

12.3 A copy of this CSR Policy will be handed over to the Directors within one month of the date of the approval of this Policy by the Board of Directors. The Policy shall also be posted on the web-site of the Company and appropriate disclosures shall be made in the Annual Report of the Company as per law.

12.4 In case of any doubt with regard to any provision of this CSR Policy and also in respect of matters not covered herein, a reference should be made to the CSR Committee. In all such matters, the interpretation and decision of the CSR Committee shall be final.

12.5 All provisions of the CSR Policy would be subject to revision/amendment in accordance with the applicable laws.
